Rated 92pts. Wine Spectator Rated 91pts. Robert Parker Rated 91pts. Wine and Spirits Rated 90pts. Wine Enthusiast

"As with most of Oregon's 2006 Pinots, this shows more grip and fullness than the winery's '07.

There's a strong smoky character, presumably from barrel toast, and a thick and chewy midpalate of mixed berries and tart cherry fruit. The acids stick out a bit, but the dominant flavor is cherry, with a spicy herbal edge." -Wine Enthusiast
